

Install stair gates at the top and bottom of staircases.

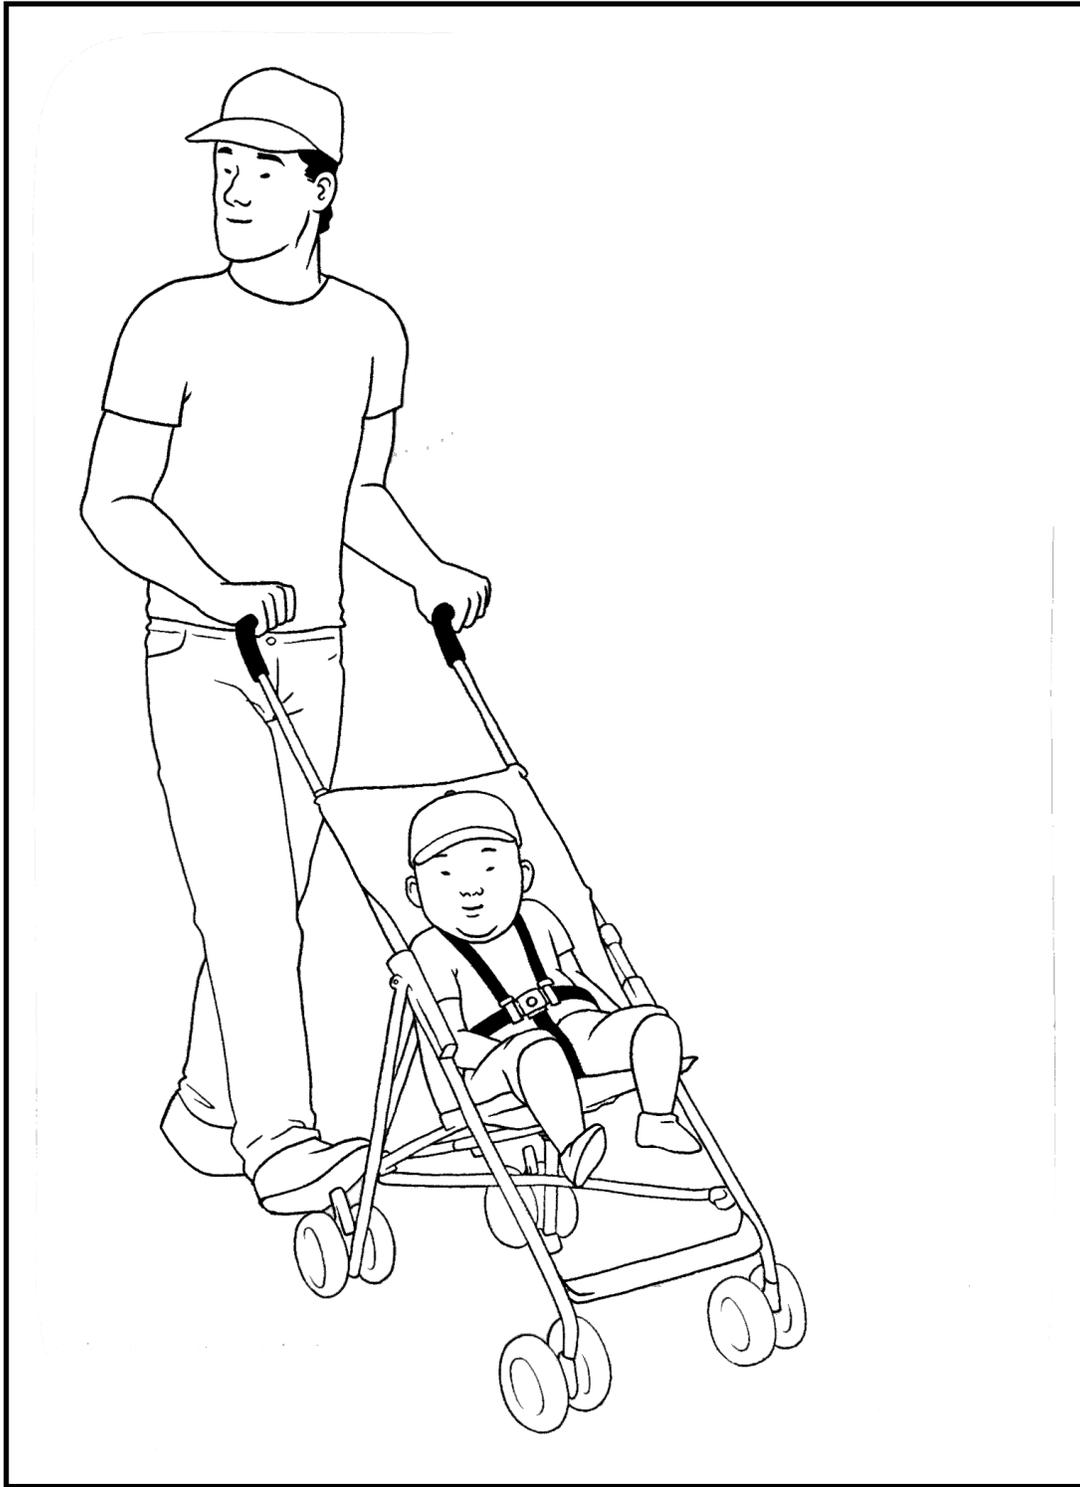

Keep your hand on your child when they are on a raised surface: the floor is a safe place to change your baby.

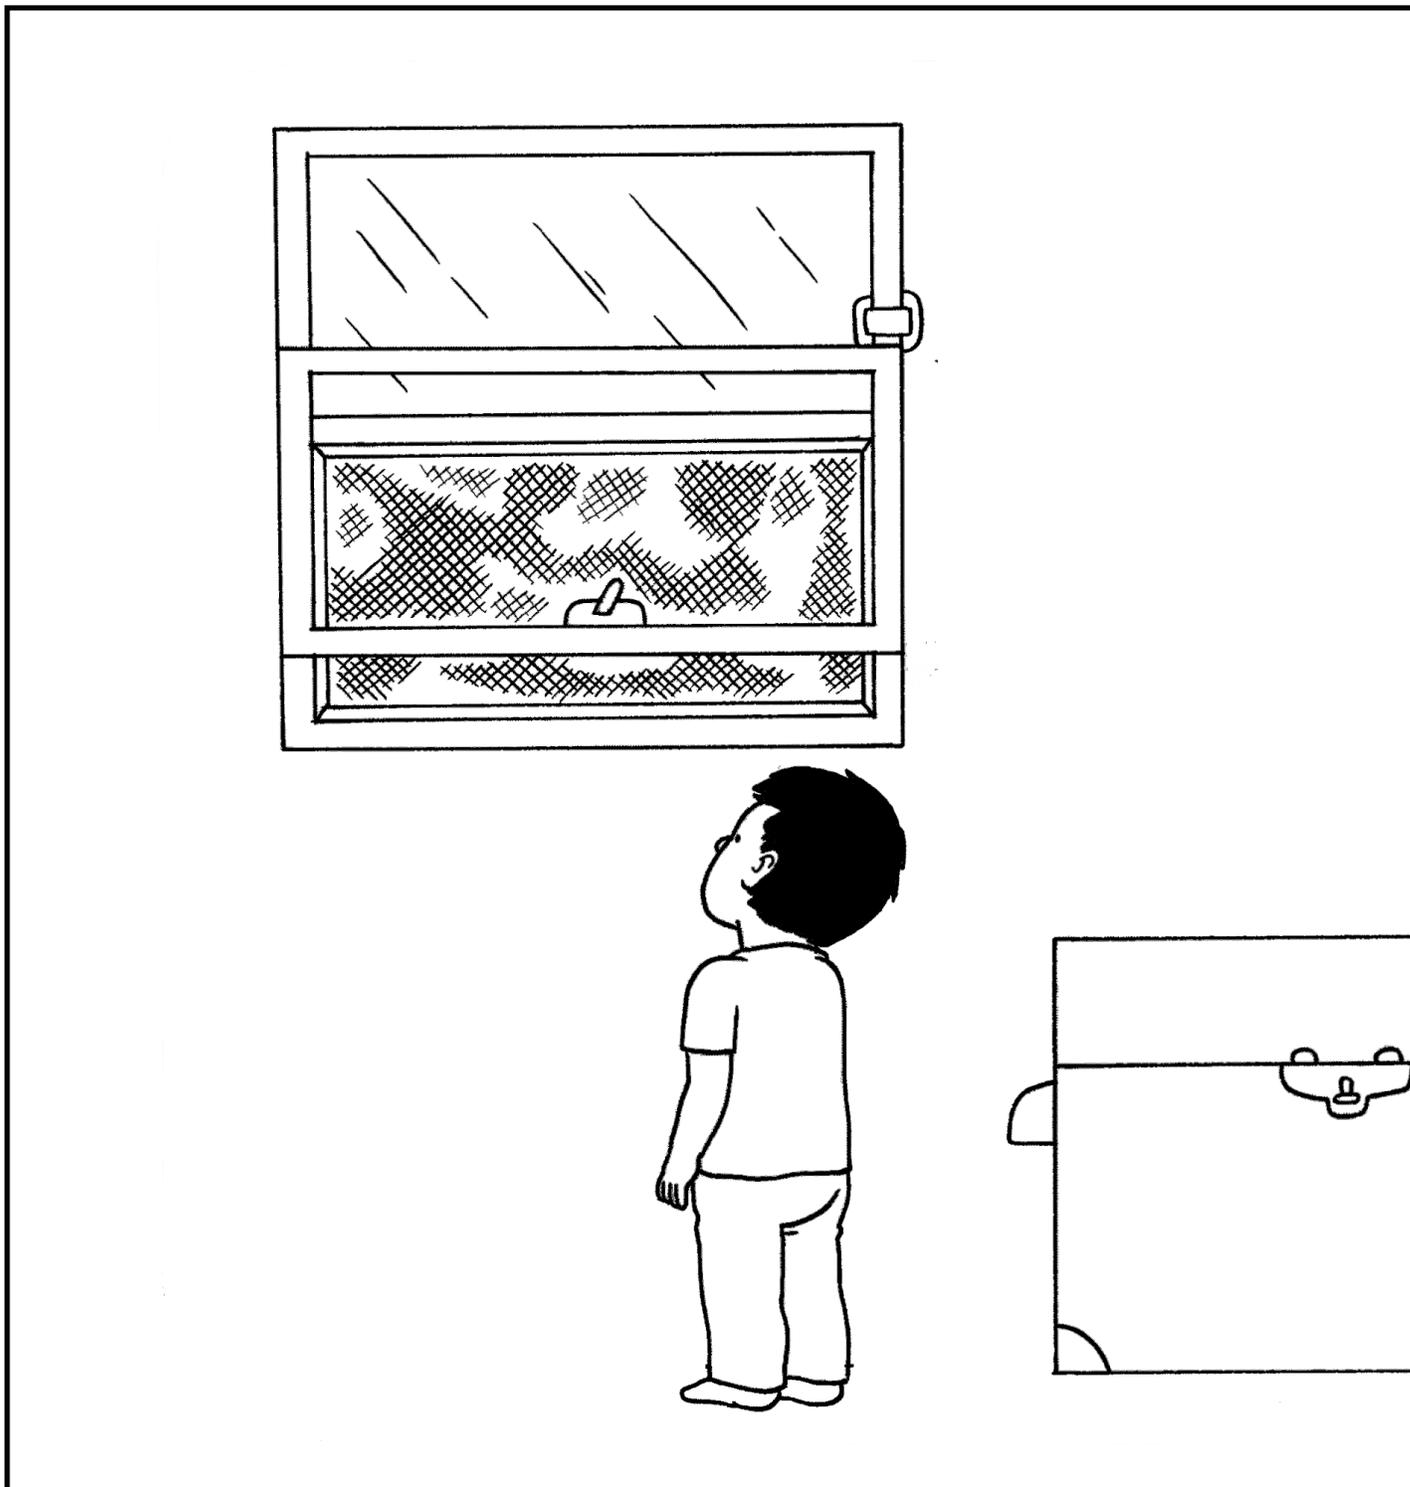

Place car seats and other carriers on the floor, never on top of furniture.

Buckle your child in their high chair every time they sit in it.

Buckle your child in their stroller every time they are in it.

Use window stops and place all furniture away from windows.